Sisters and Brothers,

For the 2020 presidential election, the IAM is doing something ground-breaking for the IAM and the entire labor movement. We are involving our members in our endorsement for the office of president of the United States.

You can register to vote in the IAM's endorsement election today at iam2020.org.

We are encouraging all members to register and then, after Super Tuesday in March 2020, vote for who will receive the IAM's coveted endorsement for president of the United States. All members in good standing who register will receive voting dates and times in the coming weeks. As a contributing member to the Machinists Non-Partisan Political League (MNPL), we know you understand that what happens in Washington, DC has a big impact on our rights and our ability to make a living for our family.

If you have not already, I strongly encourage you to register today for our endorsement vote. You'll need your IAM Card/Book Number, which is on the mailing label of this letter.

Thank you for your support of MNPL. Please encourage all your fellow members to sign up too and make their voices heard.

Rick de la Fuente
IAM Political Director
